Indice Bradley Reviews the Law in Cases of Trespass.

Bradley in deciding yesterday the cases certified to him from the police court, involving the use of parking for the storage of lumber, reviewed the law. cases were against Frank Libbey at Fifth street and New York avenue north west; Bittinger & Miller, at Thirteenth street and Ohio avenue northwest, and Beit & Dyer, at Thirteenth and C streets northwest.

Judge Bradley read the regulation es tablishing the parking and forbidding pri rate use, but not fixing any penalty for riolation. He further read a law of 1872, forbidding certain trespasses.

A still later enactment he cited, which gives the owner an exclusive but limited use of the parking by the owner of abutting The restriction was that there vas to be no injury to the grass, shrubbery, trees, or posts, and chains already

As a matter of fact, when parking was not near residences, it had failen into bad condition, and become an eyesore rather than an object of beauty on the street. It was, indeed, never intended that this parking should be used for business, but there is no restriction upon the use of the parking other than relates to injury to In the cases under consideration there is no grass or other improvements, and a has been permitted not probably intended originally.

TO ENJOIN THE SALE.

Charles Humphreys Signed Notes Which Caused Him Trouble.

Charles Humphreys yesterday sued Isaac 8. Lyon and Andrew R. Brown to enjoin sale under deed of trust and for an account-

$1,000 payable to Lyon with interest at 10 per cent till paid. He later signed three other notes for $250 each. He has paid $600 interest but nevertheless Lyon claims $2.089 due on February 16, 1896.

The notes are secured by trusts on Hum-phreys' home. Humphreys says he is a colored man and inexperienced. He had lieves he has been fraudently dealt with Heasks protection and the assistance of the court to get his rights.

Endeavorers and the White Lot. The House Committee on Public Buildings and Grounds at its meeting today will undoubtedly take favorable action on a resolution allowing the Christian Endeavor societies to use the White Lot, in Washington, during its convention here in the coming fall. As soon as the resolution reaches the House unanimous consent will be asked for its passage.

To Remove a Pension Bar. In the Senate yesterday, Mr. Peffer, Pop., Kansas, introduced a bill providing that where soldiers served first in the Confederate army or navy and afterward enlisted and served in the Federal army or shall not debar them from pensions.

New Apartment House. Architect M. T. Haller obtained a permit Pesterday for the construction of an apartnorthwest. The building is to be five stories in height and will be constructed of stone and brick, at a cost of $65,200.
